As a student participating in the abovementioned project I, _____

- agree to undertake and complete this project during the summer of 2008, join with my fellow project partners in preparing and submitting a report in advance of the September 15, 2008 deadline, and agree that this report may, alone or in combination with other reports, be edited, posted on the web, or otherwise be published without further approval.
- agree to expend the grant funds only as proposed; agree to return all grant funds immediately should the project not be undertaken.
- acknowledge that the Davis Projects for Peace initiative and the Davis United World College Scholars Program, which are providing only the grant funding and administrative services, have not and will not participate in the design or implementation of this project.
- release and forever hold harmless the Davis Projects for Peace initiative, the Davis United World College Scholars Program and all of its participating institutions from any claim for liability arising from or related to my performance of this project.
